Friends in Christ,

I am grateful for the ministry of the Reverend Joanne Myer and I know you were all blessed by both her message and her leadership last Sunday. I was blessed to be with members of my family to celebrate some important milestones in our lives, and I am very excited to be back among you!

This week is Transfiguration Sunday, a day to remember (and perhaps experience!) a close encounter with the Divine. I hope you will pause and remember a time when you felt especially close to God and bring that holy memory to worship with you.

Next week, we enter the season of Lent. We will mark the beginning of that holy season with an Ash Wednesday service on Wednesday, February 13 at 7 pm. This short, moving service includes a time of (personal) confession, repentance and forgiveness and affords us an opportunity to let go of the pain of the past. Come, and let your heart, mind and spirit find renewal, peace and power in the presence of the One who knows you best and loves you anyway. I look forward to traveling this Lenten journey together!

With you on the journey,
Meg
