Friends in Christ,

This Sunday is Transfiguration Sunday, a bright, dramatic end to the season of Epiphany. Our scripture takes us up to the mountaintop with Jesus and three of his disciples, where Jesus was transformed before their eyes. Two other luminous figures appeared on the mountain with Jesus. You can read the story here: <http://bible.oremus.org/?ql=290792157>

February is Black History Month. Our music this week is a special tribute to African American composers and spirituals. I am thrilled to be singing a duet with Paul Shimer! Come and sing along with us.

In the event that weather conditions force the cancellation of any church service or event, a notice will be posted on WFSB TV 3 and WFSB.com

Next week, we move into the season of Lent. Join us on "Fat Tuesday" for all-you-can-eat pancakes and on Ash Wednesday for a moving service that will help us prepare to enter the holy season. Read below for details.

With you on the journey,
Meg
