Friends in Christ,

Have you ever experienced a close encounter with God? A holy moment that filled your soul with awe? An indescribable sense of peace or perfect love that left you changed? This week we will go the mountaintop with Jesus and bear witness to an event in his life that transformed him, inside and out, and helped prepare him for the journey to Jerusalem.

Think about your own faith journey today as we look ahead to the season Lent. Revisit your own close encounters with God. God is still with us, in us, and all around us today, whether or not we sense God's luminous presence.

Bring your holy memories with you to church this Sunday and consider sharing them with one another. The light of holy love may touch and change us all.

With you on the journey,
Meg
