Friends in Christ,
Happy Easter! (Yes, it is still Easter!) We are still in the season of new life and miracles.

The fifty days of Easter carry us to Pentecost. We mark these days as the time the risen Christ continued to appear on earth, to his friends and followers and to hundreds of other people, before his ascension into heaven. Our scripture readings in this season-of-wonder are full of stories of these surprising post-resurrection encounters.

This Sunday is the third Sunday of Easter and the Bible takes us on a long walk, from Jerusalem to Emmaus and back. Along the way, something unexplainable happens that changed everything for the ones who first experienced it. As we follow along with them, may we be blessed just as they were, with wide-open eyes that see Christ walking with us in the world and the fire of holy purpose in our hearts.

With you on the journey,
Meg
