Friends in Christ,

This Sunday is Ascension Sunday, the day we remember the risen Christ's ascension to heaven after 40 days of post-resurrection appearances. We will read Christ's last words to his disciples, according to Luke, and see what caused them to be, "continually in the temple blessing God."

Ascension Sunday marks the end of the season of Easter, but not with a period. Rather, it leaves us hanging... like an ellipses... waiting... with a sense of holy expectation!

I look forward to standing in that sacred space of holy expectation with you. See you Sunday!

Meg
