Family and Friends of FCCV,

Things Dads will never say ...

- "I'm lost, time to pull over and ask for directions."
- "Why did you stop whining?"
- "You don't need to get a part time job, I have plenty of money for you to spend"
- "Don't you think that skirt is a little long?"
- "When is my turn to wash the dishes? It feels like forever"
- "Curfew, what curfew?"
- "Would you like control of the remote?"
- "Let's see what's on the Lifetime Channel"
- "Do these shoes go with this outfit?"
- "Who keeps turning off all the lights in the house?"

Sunday, we will look at the gospel according to Matthew for our morning text. In this piece of scripture, Jesus has been traveling among all the cities and villages teaching in synagogues, and healing the sick. He had compassion for all those who were troubled or helpless. Jesus said to his disciples, "The size of the harvest is bigger than you can imagine, but there are few workers."

Jesus wasn't talking about fields to harvest ... he was talking about all the people who still have yet to hear about the love of God. Jesus then commissions twelve disciples to go and continue the work he has started. The disciples received the command to "go and make disciples of all nations."

We, too, have been commissioned and commanded to go out into the "fields" that are ready for "harvest" ... to share the love and joy and hope that is in knowing God!

Come and celebrate the baptism of Katrina Lynn Leary this Sunday!
Come and experience God with us!

Grace be to y'all,
Robin

Reminder... Pulled Pork Dinner tonight from 5-6:30 PM
