Friends in Christ,

I love to putter around in the garden this time of year! Sunshine and water and dirt are good for the soul. But you don't have to be a gardener to appreciate the timeless wisdom in the parable Jesus uses to describe the kingdom of heaven in this week's scripture. This is one of my all time favorite passages and I am so excited to be preaching on it this week! Come and let God's word take root in you. I think you'll agree that it is a word in due season!

With you on the journey,
Meg
