Friends in Christ,

The church seems quiet this week now that all the happy hubbub of Vacation Bible School is over for the year. I am enormously proud of our DCE, Debi Hockenberry, and her cast and crew of more than thirty volunteers. A BIG HUG to everyone who helped, and gave, and prayed to make it possible! We had a wonderful week, drew close to God, and had lots of fun with our friends.

This week I am working on a sermon-for-hire, a special message selected for you by Karen Prewo and Betsy Gerakaris. Karen and Betsy were the highest bidders at our annual Golf Tournament and Auction and I am delighted to offer this word of faith and comfort on their behalf. I will be teaching from Matthew's Gospel. Read the passage here. If you are trying to do the impossible this week, it will be an inspiring read! <http://bible.oremus.org/?ql=304086270>

See you Sunday!

Meg
