"Love your neighbor as yourself." Matthew 22:38

Friends in Christ,

For the past two weeks we have been exploring what it means to love our neighbors. I hope you have made it your goal to reach out to some of the people who live nearest you, whether to get to know them, or to get to know them better. Neighboring worksheets will be in our bulletins again this week.

This Sunday concludes our three-part sermon series on loving our neighbors, though we will continue to make it a priority throughout the year. Our focus this week will be on loving the people who sit near us on Sunday morning, our neighbors in the next pew. God seems to delight in placing diverse people together in Christian community, and yet, love connects us in such powerful and enduring ways!

Also this Sunday:

A time of healing prayer will be offered immediately following the worship service at the front of the sanctuary. If you would like a minister to pray with you, please remain after the postlude.

With you on the journey,

Meg
