Family and Friends of FCCV,

Today is the last day that our youth are participating in a 4-day National Youth Event held in Orlando, FL. Our sister denomination, Disciples of Christ, has been participating as well. The event has our youth working at the food bank, sharing in community service, learning about global citizenship, joining in workshops, hearing from those who are involved in: the Black Lives Matter movement; Pakistan's child marriage issues; injustices in the Middle East; stopping cyber-bullying; campaigns against all forms of sexual violence. And, the youth have been involved in worship that was inspiring and challenging to find the passion that God has given them to do great things! Believe!

Sunday, July 31, we will begin part 2 of our series in Colossians, "Christ is All." The presumed author, the Apostle Paul, is reminding the people of Colossae that they have been reconciled to God through Christ, and because of this reconciliation they are presented to God as holy, faultless, and without blame! What?!? Can this be true?? YES! It IS true! It's the Good News!

Come worship with us Sunday at 9 AM on our front lawn. Come as you are ... and come expecting to experience God!

Grace be to y'all!

Robin
