*"This is a day of new beginnings, time to remember and move on, time to believe what love is bringing, laying to rest the pain that's gone."
Brian Wrenn*

So goes the first line from this Sunday's opening hymn. This Sunday, September 9th, is Rally Day, a time to celebrate the beginning of a new program year. We welcome back to our worship the Sanctuary Choir, who will be singing this Sunday, and all our children and Sunday school teachers, as we begin a new Sunday school year. We are so blessed with one another and Rally Day is always a particularly festive day.

This year, we also draw great inspiration from the Field of Flags. Daily, we get visitors to the church, phone calls to the office, or emails, from those who drive by and find this living monument an inspiration. The Field of Flags will be in place for one more week, until September 16th. This past week, Linda Shivers and I were interviewed by Kim Lucey of Channel 3 news about this. Here is a link to a video of this, in case you did not see it.

See you Sunday for what will be the beginning of a memorable year in the 250-year history of the FCCV.

With the beginning of a new program year, there have been some adjustments made to our church secretary, Nancy Young's, schedule.

Please take note of the following:

The Church Office will now be open and Nancy will be at the church from Monday-Friday, 8:30-12:30.

The Carillon deadline is this coming Tuesday, September 11th.

The deadline for items to be included in the worship bulletin is 9:00 am, Wednesday.

With the reduction of office hours, it is important that everyone be mindful of these hours and deadlines.
