Friends in Christ,

At our last golf tournament and auction, one of the items up for bids was, "a sermon on the topic of your choice." Holly Boutwell won with a generous gift to FCCV, and now I am thrilled to be able to do my part! This Sunday I hope to give Holly (and all of you) her money's worth as we explore the subject, "volunteering" together. I plan to pull from several parts of the Bible for this message, but our primary text for the week comes from Philippians 2:1-13. You can read ahead here:

Also this Sunday, we will commission our new Director of Christian Education, Debi Hockenberry, and our Field Placement Student for 2014-2015, Barb Hesse. We are blessed to welcome Debi and Barb to our ministry team! I can't wait to see what God will do through each of them!

Finally, I would like to recognize our long-time members on November 2nd. But, I need everybody's help! We have no comprehensive list of who has been here the longest and we do not want to leave anyone out! If you have been a member of FCCV for more than twenty-five years, PLEASE respond to this email with your name and the year you joined. Your replies will go to Nancy in the church office and she will forward them to me. Also, if you know others who have been here as long or longer than that, PLEASE let us know their names and when they joined as well (since everyone doesn't have access to email.) I thank you very much for helping us celebrate these folks!!!

Hope you are enjoying the beautiful colors of September!

With you on the journey,
Meg
