Friends in Christ,

Our weekend starts early this week with a Variety Show tonight in the sanctuary at 7 PM. The evening will feature, as you may have guessed, a VARIETY of acts from musical medleys to dancing dogs, board breaking, green-eyed dragons, Frim Fram and more. And one act is shrouded in mystery. Believe me, you won't want to miss this! Suggested donation - $10 adults/ $7 students and seniors. All proceeds from tonight's performance will benefit the Les Childs Scholarship, so it's a night of good fun for a great cause.

After our worship service this Sunday we will celebrate our second annual Trunk or Treat! Young and old alike are encouraged to wear costumes to church on Sunday and stay for the sweet festivities to follow. It's sure to be a treat for all ages! (Please Note: If you are providing a trunk for the Trunk or Treat, when you come to church on Sunday, please park on the lawn on the Center Road side of the church. You will be directed as to where to park.)

Our scripture reading this week comes from the Gospel of Matthew 22:34-40. In this story, Jesus is challenged by the Pharisees to choose the greatest commandment of all. (Spoiler Alert: Love wins.)

With you on the journey,
Meg
