Friends in Christ,

This Sunday we will gather in celebration of God's abundant blessings and give thanks. We will also have the opportunity to give back. It is Harvest of Gifts Sunday - the culmination of our season of giving. During worship, we will bring forward our pledge cards for 2014 and dedicate our gifts to God's work.

This is also Thanksgiving Sunday. In honor of the national day of gratitude we will bless individually wrapped dinner rolls and give one to each family. The bread will make it possible for you to celebrate Communion with your loved ones at your table on Thanksgiving Day. I will share more information about that on Sunday!

Finally, our congregation will have one more reason to give thanks as we baptize Marleigh Levine, daughter of Jeff and Rebecca Levine. We rejoice with Marleigh's family as we add her to our own.

"Enter God's gates with thanksgiving! Enter God's courts with praise!" (Psalm 100:4). May you find many reasons to enter into thanksgiving today and every day.

With you on the journey,

Meg
